

My Mosler Biography:

Lois Anne (Okruhlica) Jacobs – I started working at the Mosler Safe Company in the spring of 1962 in the Accounts Payable Department. George Lingler was my boss, with Mae Ramsey and Dorothy Cardinal, along with Bill Thurman and his secretary Edith Colwell. When George Lingler went to another department, my boss was James Rader who lived in Indiana, and then Jerry Glidewell.

I retired from Mosler in 1969 to be a stay-at-home mom for a few years. Beginning in 1977, I worked at various places: Don's Flowers, West Side Federal, St. Stephen/Veronica School as secretary and librarian, and Honchell construction. From there, I went to First National Bank in CIF and then the teller line. In 1984, I went to Hamilton City School to work as an Auxiliary Clerk; later as secretary in Psychological Services (Special Education). I retired after 24 years in July 2011.

I reside in Hamilton and enjoy my water aerobics workouts, my shooting club and other clubs; volunteer work at Metro Parks, St. Raphael and other places, as well as different functions from my church. I have one son, Bill, am grandma to his basset hound Herman; my companion is Sabrina, a silver miniature poodle who keeps me busy also.
