

My Mosler Biography:

Bill Wise – I started working with Mosler in 1961 as a Bank Vault Inspector Trainee in Covington, KY, working with Fred Nevel. I was given a special assignment of salvaging the Indiana National Bank Account with Frank Taphorn.

I transferred to Detroit as a Service Technician working for George Lampton and in 1964 was brought to Hamilton as a Field Service Management Trainee, reporting to Gene Gabbard.

In 1965, I was promoted to Cleveland Branch Manager reporting to Nils Pearson. In 1966, I replaced Nils Pearson as Branch Service Manager in Pittsburg, PA reporting to Doug Miller.

In 1971, I established a service territory in Grand Rapids, MI and opened a new service office as Branch Manager reporting to Doug Miller.

In 1977, I was promoted to Central Region Installation Manager in Chicago, IL and became Central Region Installation and Service Manager in 1981.

In 1983, I moved to Boston, MA as Zone Contracts Manager for Comsec, reporting to Chris Jenkins. In 1985, I was temporarily assigned as National Contracts Manager for Comsec in Wayne, NJ, reporting to Gary Woods and Steve Marzano.

My Wife Karen and I are now retired in Terre Verde, FL.
