

My Mosler Biography:

David Halvorson – I joined Mosler in May of 1972 as a service/installation technician in Minneapolis, MN. In 1974 I got involved in Mosler’s Teller-Matic program. While in Minneapolis

I worked for Roy Ticknor, Dave Lobinsky, Dave Cushman and Jerry Stites.

In 1976 I became a Project Installation Manager and was transferred to Indianapolis, IN working for Chuck Singer, and later Bill Wise.

In 1979 I went back into the field as an installer, working for Chuck Case, Mike Wethington and Don McNew.

In 1988 I became an Area Installation Supervisor working for Al Ryan.

In 1993 I became an Application Engineer working for Peter Moshinsky and Jeff Smith.

In 1997 I was transferred to Charlotte, NC working for Jeff Smith, Dave Lowry and Dan Hale until that fateful day of 8/03/2001.

After Mosler, I worked as an application engineer for ADT in Charlotte until 2002 when I moved back to Indianapolis to work for Best Access Systems, which later became Stanley Security Solutions until I retired in August of 2012.

My wife Amelia “Liz” and I live in Noblesville, IN. Our daughter Tammi and her family live in Fishers, IN, and our son Erik and his family live in West Lafayette, IN.
