

My Mosler Biography:

Hank Hinrichsen - My Mosler career actually started with American Standard in Dearborn, Michigan, in 1965, with Interim employment at Control Data Corporation from 1968 to 1975.

Perry Newcomb, Mosler VP Human Resources, informed me of Mosler's need for a Human Resources Director for Field Operations. I reported to Joe MacDonald, working at the Belle Avenue facility. Rose Lively, Darlene Avery, Melanie Deaton, and Jim Leonhart worked with me. Our job was to support Mosler's field operations nationwide.

Over the next 21 years, our field organization was reorganized a few times. Those who worked with, and for, Joe MacDonald will recall he was interested in the science of organization realignment. He had some great players on his team, and he liked to keep them "loose." It was my pleasure and good fortune to work with the likes of Dennis Wright, Peter McInerney, Dave Artone, Jerry Casey, Dave Donaldson, Peter Moshinsky, Ron Barnett, Peter Devlin, Rick Kellerman, Nils Pearson, Roger Sims, Tom Spaid, Dick Gamble, Kim Gebhart, Lynda Smith, Bob Myron, and literally hundreds of others.

I retired May 1, 1996. Nancy and I moved to Green Valley, AZ, where we currently reside. Our three sons and their families are located in Ohio, Kentucky and Michigan.
