

My Mosler Biography:

Jim Leihgeber - I joined Mosler April 1st, 1962. I began as a draftsman in the Bank Engineering Department reporting to Dick Scully manager of Bank Engineering. In 1967 I continued working in Bank Engineering as senior designer reporting to Joe Finley.

In April of 1969 I transferred to the Marketing Department, Bank and Commercial Division as associate product manager, Bank Security Equipment reporting to Ted Ellis, product manager, Bank Security Equipment. After Ted Ellis retired I reported to Lou Post.

June of 1972 I moved to Texas to work out of the Dallas Branch as a bank sales representative reporting to George Scheel, sales manager of the Dallas Branch. When George Scheel was promoted to Southwest Regional Sales Manager I reported to Tom Spaid, Dallas Branch, sales manager. During my 25 years as a sales representative in Dallas I was fortunate to work for several outstanding sales managers including the aforementioned George Scheel and Tom Spaid plus Ron Barnett, Bob Smith and Steve Trepkus.

I retired as Dallas sales account executive in December of 1997 after 35 wonderful years with Mosler.
