

My Mosler Biography:

Mike Baker - My Mosler career began in 1963. I worked in the Grand Blvd. plant in Hamilton, completing final assembly and fitting of vault doors for Cecil King.

I moved to Production Control as an Expeditor working for Joe Urso.

My last position was as a Scheduler for the Commercial Division and my supervisor was Adrian Scherer (Eddie's father). Adrian reported to Jim Cumpson. Some of my co-workers were: Ron Baker (Hub), Bob Sparks, Darrell Danford, Jim Molinsiky, Jim Sasser, Paul Raab, and Janet McMullen.

I was a member of the Mosler basketball and softball teams.

I left Mosler in 1969 and currently reside with my wife of 52 years, Sandy Baker (Mosler Exec. Administration) in Ross Ohio. We have two children, Mike Jr. and Nancy and a grandson Ryan.
